Journal of Global Economic Analysis - Call for Associate Editors

Co-editors Thomas Hertel and Niven Winchester plan to appoint two (2) Associate Editors (AEs) for the Journal of Global Economic Analysis (JGEA). The AEs will assist with day-to-day operations and help develop and promote the journal. Day-to-day duties include sourcing expert reviewers for submitted manuscripts, evaluating submissions, and advising authors on how to improve their papers. Development activities include ensuring that the journal is visible in key citation indexes and journal rankings, refining submission management procedures, and working with Center for Global Trade Analysis staff to offer online seminars featuring JGEA papers. The AE positions are unpaid appointments for a period of three (3) years, renewable for one additional term upon mutual agreement.

About the JGEA
The JGEA provides an open access, peer-reviewed platform for publication and dissemination of innovations concerning applied general equilibrium modeling. The journal is an online-only periodical published by the Center for Global Trade Analysis, which is based in the Department of Agricultural Economics at Purdue University. The JGEA is included in the Web of Science Emerging Sources Citation Index and EconLit, and has been accepted for inclusion in Scopus. More information about the journal is available at www.jgea.org.

How to Apply
Individuals wishing to apply for an AE position should submit their curriculum vitae, along with a cover letter stating why they are suited to the position by September 15, 2020. Applications should be submitted to via email to Holly McIntire (hcmcinti@purdue.edu).

Thank you,
Ginger Batta
