

Open Data Initiative at the WTO

Bob Koopman (WTO)

Abstract

At the WTO, the Open Data Initiative aims to improve the architecture of WTO data - and access to it.

The initiative aims to better integrate WTO databases and information systems. It will establish a Single Information Point to simplify access to information stored at the WTO. And it will ensure that our data is open and that it can be easily retrieved.